

QHN Members 2009 Hygeia Award Winners

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to all those QHN Members that were awarded Hygeias at this year's National Health Care Public Relations Association of Canada Conference in Montreal Quebec on Saturday, June 27, 2009 for excellence in communications. Ten of the 24 awards were granted to QHN Member organizations. The following QHN Member organizations received awards in the following categories:

- The Scarborough Hospital received second place for internal newsletters
- The Credit Valley Hospital received third place for internal newsletters
- Chatham-Kent Health Alliance received third place for external publications
- London Health Sciences Centre received first place for their annual report
- Hamilton Health Sciences received first place for special purpose communications
- The Credit Valley Hospital received third place for special purpose communications
- The Credit Valley Hospital received first place for their multi-media production
- Hamilton Niagara, Haldimand, Brant Community Care Access Centre received their place for their multi-media productions
- The Scarborough Hospital received second place for their strategic communications program
- Providence Care received third place for their strategic communications program

Special thanks to QHN Members: Kerri Bennett, Grand River Hospital and Sean Molloy, QHN for their participation as judges in the external publications category.

For more information on the Hygeia Awards please go to: www.hcpra.org.

A trusted source to elevate system improvement performance through collaborative & innovative means.

For more information about QHN, please visit: www.qhn.ca